Houseman, spare that water.

The government is again going to try the gauge of the Standard.

May next month be more august than its immediate predecessor!

Zed Stanton will have no sour grapes in his; he's going on the stump for Prouty.

Having caught a thief over in Rutland they let her go; nice country for thieves to flourish.

Apparently Lieutenant-Governor Prouty knows a good road even when he sees it down in Massachusetts.

Franklin Field will be as famous to the Knights of Pythias as Bunker Hill monument by next week, when they visit Boston.

To ex-mayors of Vermont: When having fortunes told by gypsy girls, don't display the "long green," or you may have to show the yellow later.

The Vermont Democrats have chosen their campaign manager to Harris the Republicans, which is as near harassing their opponents as they probably will get.

What's your machine, Mr. Prouty? An auto that will travel like that ought not to have its name hidden under a bushel, much less suppressed by the newspapers.

If it should turn out that E. Kent, fugitive from the state insane asylum, had nothing to do with the Wallingford murder, the police would be baffled completely; but all will readily agree that the efforts to find Kent ought not to be stopped, for he is better placed on the inside looking out through steel bars.

Massachusetts is rather set up that it has a presidential candidate, in Thomas Hagen, for the first time since Ben Butler. Massachusetts better get all the pleasure out of it now, for there will be none after next November, except the pleasure which will come to those in the defeat of the Independence party ticket.

SUCCESS TO THE VETERANS!

The success which attended the recent meeting of the Washington County Veterans' association was so remarkable as to challenge attention. In fact, the annual reunions of the "boys of '61" have become a decided feature hereabouts. That the association should have been able to muster an attendance of several hundreds out of a total membership of 545, testifies to the importance of the event in the minds of the old veterans and to the degree of enjoyment that preceding reunions have brought. It is gratifying also that the large attendance indicates that we still have with us so many of the veterans to whom we may pay our respects for services well

HARNESSING THE LOCAL WATER POWER.

The work of harnessing the water power lying contiguous to Barre and Montpelier goes steadily on, with the plans of the local trolley company to draw the electric current from its own plant located between the two cities and toward East Montpelier. This undertaking of the Barre and Montpelier Power and Traction company, while only an incident in itself, gives further testimony of the progress being made by this section of the state. While water power is going to waste and clamoring for acceptance in other parts of Vermont, we see a condition hereabouts in which the companies are at times hard put to it to secure the requisite power to run their business; there is little idle water power within a radius of many miles of either Barre or Montpelier—that is, water power sufficient to meet the exigencies of the situation. If we had a Connecticut river at our door, we could utilize the resources thus afforded to good advantage and still not be overburdened with power to turn the wheels of the fast-growing industries here located. The trolley company is doing well to make this move for rendering itself independent and self-operating, so to speak. It seems to have started at an opportune time, too.

CURRENT COMMENT.

A Good Ticket.

The selection of such a model citizen as George A. Tilden of Roxbury, as a candidate for senator by the Washington county Democratic convention is to its credit. The ticket throughout is composed of an excellent list of men. There is nothing the matter with the Republican county ticket, however, and it should be undoubtedly it will poll the full vote of the party.—Northfield News.

Thirty-seven Thousand.

Newport will be the political center of the state for the next few weeks. Chairman Williams of the Republican state committee will open the campaign this week, and through the month of August things will fairly hum. Editor Lambert of the Morrisville Messenger, will be the press agent of the committee, and he is well qualified for this important post. The state committee will depend on newspaper publicity and advertising more than ever, though speakers of national reputation will be brought into the state to help the large corps of Vermont spell-binders. Invitations have already been sent to candidate Taft and Governor Hughes to speak in Vermont, and all hope they will accept. Vermont's record Republican majority was in 1896, when at the September election Gov. Trow was elected by 36,000 majority. In the following November President McKinley's majority was even better—37,800. If the Republicans in Vermont will turn out and vote in September, we can elect Prouty and Mead by 37,000 majority, and if we do the national vote in November will be a regular landslide for Taft and Sherman. Let's do it.—St. Johnsbury Republican.

HOWE-DURFEE.

Wedding of Widespread Interest at Winooki Last Night.

Winooki, July 31.—A wedding of widespread interest took place at the Methodist parsonage, 36 Mansion avenue, at 7:30 o'clock last evening, when Miss Alice Margaret Durfee of that place was married to Carlton Dexter Howe of Essex Junction. The ceremony was performed by the father of the bride, the Rev. Dr. H. A. Durfee, pastor of the Methodist Church, assisted by the Rev. C. C. Adams, pastor of the Congregational Church, Essex Junction. The customary form of the Methodist Episcopal Church, including the double ring service was used. At the appointed hour the bridal party entered the living room where the ceremony took place before an improvised altar, and was preceded by eight young ladies carrying bouquets of ferns and singing the Lohengrin chorus, Misses Helen and Ruth Durfee, sisters of the bride, and Misses Mary and Alice Bates, Alice Stanley, Maude French and Bernice Parker of Essex Junction, all former pupils of both bride and bridegroom. The piano accompaniment was by Miss Lawson of Troy, N. Y., who also played in the Essex Junction high school, both before and after the ceremony. The bride was accompanied by her sister, Miss Elizabeth Durfee, and the bridegroom by his twin brother, Clinton D. Howe. The bride wore a dainty gown of white chiffon over tulle in princess style and carried a bouquet of white roses.

FAST RACING ON AVERAGE.

More Sensational Work at the Detroit Track.

Detroit, Mich., July 31.—More sensational racing marked the fourth day of the grand circuit harness meeting and the average time for 14 heats, 2:07, has seldom been equalled. The 2:04 pace turned out to be the biggest surprise of the year, that gallant campaigner, Baron Grattan, winning it in four heats. After finishing tenth in the first heat, Leone won the 2:12 pace in five heats, the best time of the race being 2:07 1/4. Dewitt took first money in the 2:11 trot, in five heats.

To the Users of City Water.

On account of the dry weather and shortage of water, all hose use must be discontinued.
